

Not Quarrels and Arguments 2023: Q&A

Description

February 2023 : Rajab 14 4 Issue No.2 2

Part of

Moulana Yunus Patel Saheb Rahmatullah AlayhiHazrat, who is sorely missed by was renowned for his moving and inspirationalthe community since his demise in 2011, skill and ability to connect to audiences of alldiscourses. He was blessed with the unique and anecdotes. On many occasions, at theages with simple but highly effective analogies that the meaning of the abbreviation Q &A, wasconclusion of a talk, he would remind all not Quarrels and Arguments.

our concluding part 2 with our continuing Q &A We thus present

1. be ideal if we have one central Halaal t ndluoWI think in ?ydob it Malaysia there is just one.

single Halaal body, it is a false equivalence toWhilst it is true that Malaysia now has a The Malaysian majority Muslim governmentrelate it to the South African context. Development Malaysia )JAKIM( as the sole andappointed the Department of Islamic in 1997. A more appropriate comparisoncompetent authority for Halaal certification minorities such as France, Germany, Unitedwould be with countries with Muslim like which have far more certifying bodies perKingdom, Italy, the USA, Canada and the than South Africa. Such an exercise will becountry serving a smaller Muslim population and put matters into proper perspective.revealing definition of Halaal, there is no universally accepted and best practice norms yet. Certifiers operate their respective constituencies. Many consumers of trust in their Halaal certification processes ideological and cultural differences.

of Islamic activities, we are guided by the which he should turn, therefore hasten to do every one has a direction to are, Allah will bring you all together; surely do good works; wherever you .sgniht Allah has power over all Chapter 2, Verse 148 ( :naʿuQ-la)

1. type of organization and have grown a following SANHA is a mafia where people believe, or the way they play with words as if any item not SANHA approved is Haraam. We in the food /grocery business and u remember last year, they sent out a message have endless issues, if about that one should exercise caution yet it was Cadbury chocolates MJC approved.

arrogance all rolled into one statement. Cadbury blatant untruth, hearsay and astounding any point in time and no such message was ever issued SANHA. simply believe that products are Haraam on our say so devorppa SANHA ton is judgemental, condescending and insults their intelligence. peace be upon him Allah has ,ylireV be humble towards one another, so that no one revealed to me that you must .rehtona wrongs another or boasts to Muslim( hihaS)

1. a Muslim to certify a Muslim owned business as There is no need for Halaal.

choice exercised by an entrepreneur. There is no Halaal certification is an individual establishment with us, with any other body or compulsion on any person to certify their thousands of businesses that have exercised this even to certify at all. There are literally same token we serve those businesses who choose prerogative which we respect. By the some of whom have done so continuously for Halaal certification of their own volition, over two decades.

that choose not to be certified but try to What we find deplorable is the few businesses service as an entitlement to their Muslim intimidate us to provide a free assurance

